Principal's News

Monday 6 June 2016

What a wet and wild weekend, I do hope you are now starting to dry out and clean up after such a downpour. Looking at the impact of the storm and wind along the ocean front, we are certainly reminded about the "power of nature". While many schools were forced to close for a day we have been lucky here with only a few muddy puddles and leaves laying around. In this particular circumstance it helps when you are on a sandy site – it’s incredible how quickly the water drains away.

2017 Enrolments
Enrolments are now open for 2017 – especially for Kindergarten or families moving into the area. If you have any questions please contact the Front Office or the Principal.

This Thursday’s assembly at 1.45 pm will be led by the students in KW. All families are welcome to attend.

Sue Lowe
Principal

Thought for the Week

What’s happening in Ethics classes:
Hi, my name is Peter Coggan and I am the Year 2 Ethics Teacher at Broulee School. Many of the topics in the Primary Ethics curriculum are concerned with questions about identity.

How are we to decide what things are of most value? Is it important to develop the attributes and capacities we have? Does each of us have a duty to reflect rationally on the question “What sort of person should I strive to be?” and “What tools do we need in order to do so?”

So far Year 2 has completed two topics: Pride – a vice or virtue and How Important are the Reasons. Currently we are working on “Are you the same person you used to be?” In this topic we raise the questions about personal identity over time. If my identity is forged over time and reflects my experience and personal development (even transformation) then questions arise whether or not I am one and the same person I used to be and whether I might be a different person in the future.

Broulee Public School currently delivers four ethics classes and one of our wonderful volunteer teachers is moving on. To make sure our classes can continue, we need a volunteer to replace them.
Ethics Teachers facilitate discussion using training and material provided by Primary Ethics. Teaching and its required preparation would take no more than two hours per week. All volunteers are vetted and trained by Primary Ethics. Applications to volunteer are welcome from members of the school and wider community.
To find out more about becoming an Ethics Teacher and to apply online, please visit:  http://www.primaryethics.com.au. You can also contact our school’s Ethics Coordinator, Anita Macartney for more information: 0407 959 602.
